

Newburgh Fire Department

Training Division

BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS INDEPENDENT STUDY TEST

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

True or False, Circle the correct response.

- Bloodborne Pathogens are disease-causing microorganisms that may be present in human blood.
True False
- The Newburgh Fire Department is not required to provide employees access to the department's Exposure Control Plan.
True False
- The term "Work Practice Controls" refers to procedures implemented to minimize the risk of being involved in an Exposure Incident.
True False
- Universal Precautions is the belief that personal protective equipment (PPE) needs to be worn only when dealing with HIV infected patients.
True False
- Contaminated sharps may include needles, knives, sharp metal and glass shards.
True False
- Human blood is the only bodily fluid that can pose a threat to first responders.
True False
- Decontamination of equipment and clothing, in addition to hand washing, are important to prevent the possible contamination of additional surfaces, equipment, areas and locations.
True False

Continued on reverse

Short answer; fill in the blanks with the appropriate words.

8. An _____ is an occurrence where bodily fluids or airborne droplets are contacted by non-protected personnel.
9. The three main routes of BBP transmission are through;

and _____.
10. _____ and _____ are two diseases that are considered to be most threatening to first responders.
11. The term _____ refers to the fact that certain employees, such as firefighters, are exposed to bloodborne pathogens due to the nature of their work.
12. Any Exposure Incident or suspected incident should be immediately reported to your Immediate _____.